

many brands the flames burned high. Almost a Persecution fever prevailed. The warmth, the mutua-any seemed to have returned. And such a parting it was worth while to go all the way from Massachusetts to Pennsylvania only to feel the warm pressure of many hands. God bless the Progressive Friends of Chester County. VISITOR.

From another Correspondent.

Among those present from a distance were three Shakers from New-Lebanon—FREDERICK W. EVANS, JANE KNIGHT and HARRIET BULLARD. The first named participated quite freely in the discussions, and the last spoke forcibly on the Woman question. A Memorial preacher, from Montgomery County, was also present. DAVID A. WASSON, minister of the Free Church in Groveland, Mass., quickened every heart by his rare devoteness and his earnestness. He was not less ready for daring to differ on some points from other speakers, and probably from a majority of the meeting. LUCRETIA MOTT was present the first two days, and, though still a member of the Harkness Quaker body, did not hesitate to avow the approval of the principles of the meeting. Among the letters read to the meeting, was one of great interest and value from L. MARIA CHILDS. Not less than six Unitarian Clergymen (among them Mr. Proctoringham of Jersey City and Mr. Latiglow of Brooklyn), sent their sympathy for the cause of their own interest in the movement of Progressive Friends, as one of the most hopeful signs of this eventful age. More than $250 was contributed to defray the expense of publishing the proceedings, including Mr. May's sermon and Mr. Johnson's paper on Amusements.

Our Christian Friends have a new and rather elegant edifice for their meetings, and the adjoining grounds are laid out in excellent taste. Opposite this meeting-house is a new cemetery, admirably laid out and planted with trees and shrubs. Among the few persons noticed that of the much-lamented wife of Bayard Taylor, marked by a white headstone, with the striking inscription—"Through darkness unto light."

THE ANNUAL NEW-ENGLAND ANTI-SLAVERY CONVENTION.

The annual Convention of the Abolitionists of New England met in the Melodeon this morning. The audience was large, intelligent, and highly respectable in appearance. The inexhaustible and unparalleled outrage upon Mr. Sumner, and the intelligence from the Kansas revolution, contribute to increase and deepen the interest in this annual meeting. At 10 o'clock the Convention was organized as follows:

PRESIDENT, FRANCIS JACKSON, JR., of Boston.
VICE PRESIDENTS—EDMUND QUIRY, of Dedham; E. D. DRAPER, of Milford; PETER LIBBEY, of Boston; M. J. CLAPTON, of Portland; JOHN W. HARRINGTON, of Hartford; ROBERT PLURKE, of Philadelphia; R. HARRELL, of Havfield; L. CATRON, of Worcester.

SECRETARIES—JAMES C. MITCHELL, of Milford; SAMUEL MAY, Jr., of Boston; AARON M. POWELL, of New-York.

Business and Finance Committees were also appointed.

WM. LLOYD GARRISON, from the Business Committee, reported a series of strong resolutions, among others, the following, relating to the recent barbarous outrage on Senator SUMNER:

Resolved, That we fully participate in the general feeling of indignation and horror which is felt in view of the recent deadly and murderous assault made in the Senate Chamber at Washington upon our distinguished colleague, the Hon. Charles Sumner, by fitting Representatives of and from the lawless States of South Carolina, that, whether such violence shall be committed, or to the position and character of the victim, an assault characterized by greater cowardice and more wantonly than ever before in the history of the Republic;

And that we are in constitutional liberty, or more comprehensively malignant against the cause of human freedom, cannot be found in the pages of our country's history.

Resolved, That we solemnly reiterate our demand upon Congress to "crush out" freedom of speech on the floor of Congress as effectually as it is done on the slave plantations of the South, and that we will support every Representative who shall dare to lift up a manly voice against Executive usurpation and Congressional cowardice.

Resolved, That all those who find any justification or excuse for apology for it, will regard himself to be on a level with the base assassin of a pure patriot, and no longer a member of the free assembly of the people called National Legislature.

Resolved, That the speech made by Mr. Sumner, which he subjected him to the most brutal treatment, is a specimen of eloquence and logic for perfect in its conception, arrangement and execution, conclusive in argument and evidence, and

The revolutions denote in the several languages the Border Ruffian outrages in Kansas—decalars, usual, against any union with slaveholders, and call for a Convention to take measures for "a more perfect union," as follows:

Resolved, That a delegated Convention of the Free Soil States should be held at early period and at a place so central and practicable, for the purpose of taking measures to effect a speedy withdrawal from an alliance which no experience of almost three score years has demonstrated to be impractical and as it has been destructive to genuine Republicanism.

Resolved, That, to secure the desirable object, the Executive Committee of the National Union Convention shall be earnestly requested to appoint Committees of Correspondence and Vigilance in the several Free States, to endeavor to procure the presence of delegates from all States desirous to send representation in the Convention aforesaid.

The Convention this morning has been solemn and eloquently addressed by Samuel May, Jr., Mr. Garrison, the Rev. R. Hassell, C. C. Burleigh, J. Claflin and others. The signs of the times are pregnant so full of interest in the consideration of the great question of the day—American Slavery. A N. Y.
